

Diagram of a parallelogram $ABCD$. A line segment BE is drawn from vertex B to point E on side AD . The segment BE is perpendicular to AD , indicated by a right-angle symbol at E . The length of BE is labeled as 2, and the length of AE is labeled as 3. The vertices are labeled A , B , C , and D . The segment BE is also labeled as $C = D'$.